

RULES

Admitted riders – Groups:

All persons in possession of a valid passport and a valid driving licence for the registered motorbike are admitted. The motorbike must have a valid green card extension for Morocco. Participants will be divided into two groups:

- Group "On/Off": mixed route on dirt roads and scenic asphalt roads.
- Group "Road": 100% on asphalt roads, which can also be ridden by a rider with a passenger.

Motorbikes allowed:

- "On/Off" category: On/Off bikes, enduro bikes, scooters, vintage bikes suitable for long off-road rides. Tyres with tread blocks or suitable for off-road use are compulsory.
- "Road" category: road bikes, enduro bikes, scooters and vintage bikes suitable for long distance riding.

For all categories, both 'Road' and 'On/Off', it is compulsory to have on board the motorbike:

- Satellite navigator (suitable for reading off-road GPX tracks) or mobile phone with a programme for reading GPX tracks and Moroccan maps.
- Puncture repair kit
- Basic medical kit, first aid kit
- Water and energy bars

We would like to inform you that the route will take you over routes that vary from altitudes of a few hundred metres in the desert to altitudes of over 3,300 metres in the Atlas mountains. Therefore, large temperature changes are possible in late October. Participants should be equipped with clothing and gloves suitable for the different temperatures.

Routes:

The routes will be on scenic roads suitable for both large two-cylinders and single-cylinders suitable for long off-road rides.

The start/finish points of the stages will be at hotels and tented camps chosen by the organisation.

Participants must drive along the route in groups of at least 3 people. The organisation will not be liable for any problems or accidents occurring to those who do not respect this clause.

The routes will be indicated by means of GPX tracks. Those who do not feel able to follow the tracks themselves can follow one of the organisation's guides.

Along the route there will be medical assistance and recovery services for pilots and damaged vehicles (transport of motorbikes to the finish of the stage).

Riders who, for any reason, leave the track provided by the organisers, must immediately inform the emergency numbers provided by the organisers by radio or telephone.

Riders who do not respect this clause will not be allowed to take part in the following stages of the trip.
